

TERMS OF AGREEMENT

If awarded a 2020 AAFP Foundation Family Medicine Leads (FML) Emerging Leader Institute Scholarship, you must comply with the following terms of agreement as a scholarship recipient:

1. Complete W-9 IRS tax form prior to receiving $1,000 scholarship check at the FML Emerging Leader Institute Welcome Breakfast.
2. Attend the AAFP National Conference, July 30-August 1, 2020 in Kansas City, MO.
3. Attend the AAFP Foundation FML Emerging Leader Institute, August 1-2, 2020 at the AAFP Headquarters in Leawood, KS.
4. Attend all program-related FML Emerging Leader Institute events and activities.
5. Complete all leadership project work related to assigned leadership track by March 31, 2021. Late projects will not be considered for awards and failure to complete leadership project will result in consequences.
6. Maintain monthly communication with AAFP family physician mentor, who will provide guidance, support and leadership development during the FML Emerging Leader Institute.
7. If granted a Leadership Project Award, return the following year to National Conference and showcase project work in poster format.
8. If granted a Best Leadership Project Award, return the following year to National Conference and showcase project work in poster format, give formal presentation, participate in FML Emerging Leader Institute weekend activities, and attend an AAFP or AAFP Foundation special opportunity related to leadership track.
9. Grant permission of the AAFP Foundation use of photographs, video, audio or other recordings, in any form and in any media, and to use your name, project, and/or biographical information, and share language from donor acknowledgement in connection with or apart from any such use, without prior review or approval by you, in furtherance of activities.
10. Write a formal note of thanks to a FML Emerging Leader Institute donor.

Please contact Annette Routon with any questions.
familymedicineleads@aafp.org | 913-906-6223